Title: The subtle phenomenon of Culture

Abstract: In this interactive session we’ll take an overview of the concept of culture. Topics that will be covered include the different components that comprise culture, where it can be found, and how it may manifest and perpetuate itself.

Bio: Lee Richard is the International Training Coordinator at The Queen’s University International Centre (QUIC). He has worked in the field of International education for over 10 years; including 7 years living, working, and studying in Japan.